A little boy about six years of age attempted to cross Main street yesterday, between Kiel's Hotel and Geo. Hannes' store, and about midway became fast in the mud. The little fellow at once commenced to c.v and struggle vigor msly to extricate himself. His efforts were unavailing, as every move he made caused him to sank deeper in the mire. Upwards of twenty persons assembled on the sidewalks to witness the scene, but no one had the courage to attempt the rescue, until a man on hors back made his appearance. He looked around a moment, then casting his eyes heavenward plunged in with a fixed determination to rescue the lad or 'perish in the attempt." A Worse Place Than Leavenworth.

London, December 25.—A correspondent at Vienna says intelligence from Constantino-ple leaves tittle doubt that the rejection of the Turkish note by the Powers has caused the war party to recover full sway, above all the reaction produced in the feetings of the Sultan by the huminating rejection of the note the bonapartist teneral, he oval, a tew days before the determination of the crisis, confer-red with several generals in regard to such an event. The "France" declares that the troops at Versailies and elsewhere near Paris, were provided with a large supply of cartridges, and that many officers drew up their resigna-tions on receiving orders to be in readiness to march.

Prince Hismarck, contrary to the organized financial programme of the liberals, intends to resort to indirect imports, and especially a heavy tobacco duty and excise. Probably other motives are connected with the cabinet changes, which it would be difficult to fathom as yet. If the Emperor approves of the new appointments, they are likely to be amounted by the end of January, when Prince

South America Enjoying its Regular New York, December 27.—The "Star and Heraid," of Panama, says a rebellion broke out at Panta Arenas, which the government was at first entirely unable to quell, and was organized solely for the purpose of exterminating Captain Guiza'de, chief of the garrison. The robets, after cruelly assassinating the Captain, set fire to the buildings, mending the hospital with all the petients in it. They stole $7,40 from the treasury, and robbed all the commercial houses. In the confusion they were killing each other. Of the houses composing the colony, only about half remain standing. The total number of killed is forty, with fourteen wounded.
